

1. This query selects all attributes of players who belong to a team that secured the second place in a conference.
2. It retrieves all attributes of head coaches whose names do not start with 'M'.
3. It counts the number of games played per home team in the "player_played_in_game" table, grouped by home team.
4. This query joins the teams and stadiums tables to fetch the names, points per game, stadium names, and per-game attendance of teams playing in stadiums.
5. It calculates the maximum number of championships won by any head coach and renames the result as "GOAT".
6. This query computes the average per-game attendance in stadiums from the "stadiums" table.
7. It counts the number of stadiums with a capacity greater than 20,000 from the "stadiums" table.
8. This query tallies the number of games played by each home team and filters out those with more than 50 games played.
9. It selects the names and points per game of players whose points per game exceed 24, ordered by points per game in descending order.
10. This query fetches the names, career records, and team names of head coaches whose total wins fall between 800 and 2000 and their teams are in first place in a conference.
11. It retrieves the names, points per game, and team names of players whose points per game exceed 30, playing in stadiums.
12. This query selects the names, points per game, and team names of players who are coached by head coaches.
13. It returns unique names, points per game, and team names of players whose teams are coached by a head coach whose name starts with 'M'.